IT IS EASY to resort to a string of adjectives to sketch a person on paper. But one seldom, if ever, can do any justice to the spirit that lies within. More so with an artist. Each artist has his own 'Muse' from which stem ideas which find expression in a variety of media...

I had heard of Shuvada and admired his works much before I met with him. I was not sure what I had expected—whatever it was, Shuvada still managed to surprise and delight me. With his disarming nonchalance and his gentle humour, he introduced me to his world of liquid expressions. With time, a deep friendship has developed.

In this exhibition, we bring you a wide variety of Shuvaprasanna's recent works. Images that reflect a style which is distinct and evocative.
